

Rosevards Girls' Brigade

All girls aged 3 years and over are welcome to come along on a Thursday evening from September- March to join in the fun and fellowship. The first proper night back is this Thursday. Please encourage all young girls to come along.

Billy Parish Church

Open weekend and WW1 Display. The weekend is celebrating the heroism of Robert Quigg VC at the Somme. The display is open from Saturday 10th-Sunday 11th September from 11am-5pm with special commemorative services at 10:30am and 6pm. All welcome. Refreshments will be served throughout the day.

Ballyweaney PW

The PW ladies warmly invite you and your friends to join us for our Harvest tea. Visit the cake, craft and plant stalls and enjoy your tea and catch up with old friends. We look forward to seeing you there. Admission £5. Saturday 10th September, 2-4pm.

Toberdoney PW

Invite you to their church hall for a Gospel concert featuring 'Acclaimed' and other local artists. Sat 23rd Sept, 8pm. Admission £6 towards PW funds.

Pastoral

Please remember, if you require the services of a minister, or you know of someone who is unwell or in hospital, please contact the minister on the manse telephone number. Due to data protection Ministers no longer have access to the same details of patients as they used to. Also, if you currently don't receive the church magazine, envelopes or other church literature, please let the Minister know.

Midweek Bible study and Prayer

Our Midweek series commences this Wednesday at 8pm. This term we'll be looking at popular psalms. All welcome.

Parent and Toddlers

There might be an avenue to commence something like this in the Autumn. If interested, please see the Rev. Moore. For this to be goer 5 or 6 volunteers are needed.

Organist

Last week we said goodbye to our organist, Sam. The post of organist is now vacant and has been advertised in the local press. If you know of any interested candidates, please get them to contact the Minister or any member of Kirk Session. Maybe there is someone in the congregation, and you feel you could serve the church in this way. We thank Mrs Caroline McConaghie and Miss Holly McConaghie for standing in.

Personal thanks

The Rev. Moore would like to publically express his sincere thanks to the members of the congregation who sympathised with him following the death of his Grandmother, through words, cards, text messages and attendance at the funeral service. It was very much appreciated.

Presbytery Overseas Rally

There will be a special Presbytery Mission Rally on 18th September, in Dunluce Presbyterian. There will be no Carncullagh Café in September to accommodate this. There will be a slot during the service for you to hear about the work that Rev. Moore and Andrew McCaw did with PCI Missionaries, Csaba and Ilona Veres.

Choir

Choir practises will commence today for Harvest Thanksgiving. Please keep your eye on the announcement sheet for further details. There is always room for more, especially if you can make a joyful noise.

Technical

As you can see, the screens around the Meeting House are now operational. It will take us some time to adapt to this change. We ask for your patience as we get to know the system. If you'd like to be involved in audio visual, sound or recording, please speak to Mr. Harold Irwin.

Crafts and Chats

The first Crafts & Chats meeting of the new season will be on Thursday 15th September. Ladies of all ages will be made most welcome. It would be lovely to be joined by new faces too! Please invite friends and family. If you haven't been before and would like to come please send a little message to Lynda (07742739427) so she brings enough materials. Here is the schedule for the coming months. Flyers are on the vestibule table. Please take some to pass on to others.
