Welcome to 'Carncullagh',

Dervock Presbyterian Church

(Est. 1646)

We bid a warm welcome to everyone to our church, especially any visitors who may be joining with us. We trust that you will enjoy sharing in our worship of the Triune God and fellowshiping with God's people.

We invite you to sign the visitors' book in the vestibule. The services each week are recorded onto a DVD. If you would like one, or you know somebody who would, please say to whoever is on door duty. We also produce a quarterly church magazine, if you don't receive this, please inform whoever is on door duty.

Here, at Dervock Presbyterian Church, we seek to be a W.E.L.L. community, looking in every direction. We Look up as we Worship, we look out as we Evangelise, we look down as we Learn from God's Word and we look around as we Love. We hope that's what you experience as you worship with us today.

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE
Dervock Presbyterian Church

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

We, [Insert name of Congregation or Presbytery], are the data controller (contact details below). This means that we decide how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

We comply with our obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service (pastoral care) for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area;
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the charity;
- To manage our employees and volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications);
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services running at or run by us; and
- To share your contact details with the Presbyterian Church in Ireland so they can keep you informed about news and events, activities and services that will be occurring and in which you may be interested, or where you hold an office within the congregation that requires your details to be communicated to Presbytery or General Assembly

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

Is dependent upon the data subject (individual) and the purpose of the data processing. For example: the data processing for an employee in terms of what data is collected and how it is further processed is different from that of a member of our congregation. Legal bases we rely on will primarily consist of one or more of the following:

- Processing is necessary for the purposes of legitimate interests pursued by us or a third party except where such interests are overridden by the interests, rights or freedoms of the data subject. This is where we need to use your data to engage in our normal day to day activities e.g. keeping a record of your name and address on our membership list;
- Processing is carried out by us in our capacity as a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided: -
  - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
  - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

An example of this may be where a record of sensitive data may need to be kept by us so that effective pastoral care may be provided to members;
- Explicit consent of the data subject. An example of this would be your consent to joining a mailing list so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities and services and process your gift aid donations and keep you informed about PCI events;
- Processing is necessary for us to comply with the law. Examples of this could be our legal obligations to maintain certain records so that we may carry out our obligations under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement; and
- Processing is necessary for us to protect the vital interests of a data subject that cannot physically or legally give consent. An example of this may be for us to run special needs activities.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of the church in order to carry out a service to other church members or for purposes connected with the church. We will not normally share your personal data with any third party and will only share your data with third parties outside of ourselves with your consent.

Where we use other organisations to provide a service (such as cloud storage) they are only selected if they are GDPR compliant, they will only use your data as instructed by us.
